Date Posted: April 2, 2025

Closing of Posting: April 18, 2025

Work Location: Canada (remote)

What is the Opportunity?

The Canadian Centre for Safer Communities is hiring a Project Manager to support the development of several community safety and well-being (CSWB) plans in in Manitoba and other locations across Canada. The successful candidate will work alongside communities to gather data and identify local needs, challenges, and recommendations to inform local CSWB plans.

Commitment to Equity

CCFSC is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion and strives to adopt an intersectional lens in our work. To reflect the rich diversity of the communities we work with, we welcome all applicants, including those who experience historical and/or current barriers to equity, such as:

- Indigenous Peoples (First Nations, Métis, and Inuit)
- Individuals that experience discrimination due to race, ancestry, ethnicity, religion and/or spirituality
- Persons with visible and/or invisible disabilities
- Persons of marginalized sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions
- Newcomers

*We encourage equity-deserving applicants to consider self-declaring during the application process.

A Bit About Us

CCFSC brings together urban, rural, and Indigenous communities across Canada to build capacity, prevent and reduce violence and crime, and foster CSWB through training, research, knowledge exchange, and expertise. Our work is guided by a broad concept of community safety and well-being that includes thorough local assessments and planning processes, a variety of preventative measures, the mobilization of stakeholders, and public engagement. These efforts expand beyond criminal legal system responses and reduce reliance on enforcement. For more information visit <https://ccfsc-cccs.ca/>.

A Bit About You
